

Albion Waste Cookies Policy

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or device when you visit our website. These files allow our website to recognise your device and store certain information about your preferences or past actions, improving your experience on our site.

How We Use Cookies

At Albion Waste, we use cookies to:

- Remember Your Visits: Recognise that you have visited us before, enabling us to personalise your experience and ensure we have enough capacity for the number of users we receive.
- Customise Content: Tailor elements of the promotional layout and content on our website to suit your preferences.
- Collect Statistical Data: Gather anonymous statistical information about how you use our site, including the pages you visit, how long you stay, and the sources that bring you to our site. This helps us to improve our website's functionality and design.

Types of Cookies We Use

- Session Cookies: These cookies last only for the duration of your web session and expire when you close your browser.
- Persistent Cookies: Some cookies remain on your device between browsing sessions, allowing us to remember your preferences or actions across multiple visits to our site.

Third-Party Cookies

We may also use third-party cookies set by service providers, such as Google Analytics, to help us analyse web traffic and understand user behaviour on our site. These cookies do not collect personal data and are used solely for improving our services.

Managing Cookies

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser settings to decline cookies or notify you when a cookie is being set. Please note that if you choose to disable cookies, some features of our website may not function correctly.

For more information about managing cookies, you can visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. Any changes will be posted on this page.
